LOOKING TO OUR ROLE MODEL
As Christians, we are always called to seek ways of imitating Christ. However, many people may have reservations in trying to imitate Christ because it seems like an unattainable ideal. We may feel that Jesus, being God, doesn't know what it's like to struggle here on earth. However, this does not mean he didn't have to fight the same fight that we do in our path towards virtue. St. Paul in his letter to the Hebrews says "For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who in every respect has been tested as we are, yet without sin."

St. Paul beautifully shows us that Christ fully understands what our struggles and difficulties are. Although He never succumbed to temptations, He too would have faced the desire to despair or give up on His call to love and sacrifice for us. Therefore, let us turn to Jesus and ask Him to help us overcome our struggles.

FEAST OF ST. LUKE
On Monday, October 18, the Church will celebrate the feast of St. Luke, the Apostle and Evangelist. On this day, during the Mass at 7.00 p.m. the sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick will be administered. We kindly ask you to pass this information on to the sick and to help bring them to the church.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY – OCTOBER 24
Since 1922, the Pontifical Missions Societies, through the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, have supported the temporal needs of missions and created awareness of the work of the missions throughout the world. Some examples of their projects include: building churches, pastoral centres, cathedrals, religious houses of formation, homes for the clergy; offering formation programs for lay missionaries; providing radio and television production and audio-visual materials to remote mission areas; and supporting pastoral work in various rural dioceses.
There will be a second collection next weekend, October 23/24 (after the Holy Communion) for World Mission Sunday. Our offerings are combined with those of other Catholics around the world and distributed to missions and dioceses. Thank you for your support of this important work.

Living the Gospel by supporting seminarians
We must pray for good and holy priests. But we must also ensure they are equipped with an excellent educational and spiritual formation, which is why your gift to ShareLife supports St. Augustine's Seminary. The future of our Church, and the essential pastoral care provided by our priests, depends on our generosity.
October 31 is the next ShareLife Sunday. Please give generously during the collection or anytime at sharelife.org

ALL SOULS DAY REMEMBRANCE ENVELOPES are displayed next to our bulletins. Please write the names of our dearly departed clearly, using CAPITAL LETTERS. The envelopes can be thrown into the offertory baskets.
